

Impressions of our alumniees

Thank you for these great 4 weeks in Kursk!!
Most important: I really learned a lot, I liked our group and our teachers were really good, they encouraged us a lot to speak. I liked the dormitory and the food, too.

Ich war positiv überrascht darüber, dass der Unterricht so gut organisiert war & und man in kleinen Gruppen gelernt hat. So konnte nicht individuell auf unsere Wünsche eingee-gangen werden.

Merci pour tout, ces 3 semaines sont passées très vite. J'ai vraiment apprécié. Au niveau des cours, ils étaient bien construits et les professeurs très
sympathiques: j'ai plus appris en 3 semaines ici qu'en

1 an en France.

Merci encore

Jerémie

KURSK STATE UNIVERSITY

INTENSIVE COURSES
OF RUSSIAN LANGUAGE AND CULTURE

Kursk State University is one of the oldest and the most prestigious universities of the Central Region of Russia. It provides scientific support to economic, technological and social research and projects in the region.

Various university scientific schools (in Physics, Natural Sciences, Humanities, Psychology, and Pedagogics) are famous both in Russia and abroad. Highly qualified specialists are trained through full and part-time graduate studies (56 Bachelor and 18 Master programs), 44 PhD programs.

Kursk State University is actively developing international relations. There are close contacts with foreign scientific and educational organizations, Embassies, and international foundations and institutions. Cooperation with a number of universities in Europe and the USA has been established.

The university offers Russian language courses at all levels of proficiency throughout the academic year and annually holds Summer Schools of the Russian language and culture during which students have intensive language practice and get acquainted with the culture, traditions and modern political and economic life in Russia.

Four-week Russian Language Schools throughout academic year include:

- 30 contact hours of instruction per week
- extensive communication with native speakers
- various extracurricular activities
- accommodations
- Moscow-Kursk-Moscow transfer

Academic program

The system of the Russian language, literature and cultural studies provided by Kursk State University helps to easily overcome language or cultural barriers.

Students are placed in groups by their level of language proficiency according to results of a placement test, taken on the first program day.

Classes are taught by highly qualified native-speaker instructors, who have been certified to teach Russian as a foreign language by Pushkin State Russian Language Institute (Moscow) and Peoples' Friendship University of Russia (Moscow). All instructors have extensive experience of teaching Russian as a foreign language. Teaching in English is available.

Extracurricular program

The program includes various excursions and field trips to sites of historical and cultural interest in Kursk and its environs.

Accommodations

The university campus is conveniently located in the center of the city. Students stay in a dormitory, located within walking distance to the university. There is a shared kitchen available. The stores, cafes, and a post office are all situated in close proximity.

City location

Kursk is a city with a thousand-year-history, a cultural, administrative and industrial center of Kursk province. Unique archeological monuments and architecture of the city, its history and culture are of great interest. Picturesque environment of the province will leave unforgettable impression about your visit to the city.

There are air, railway and automobile communications between Kursk and Moscow (500 km) as well as different regional centers.

Cost

The exact cost of the program depends on a number of students per group and overall number of groups. The average cost is 500 € per student for a four-week course.
